"And now, presenting Virginia's finest, the James Madison University Marching Royal Dukes!"

This familiar announcement begins each exciting halftime at JMU home football games as the marching band takes the field with their spectacular musical renditions and fast-paced drill maneuvers. The 415-piece Dukes have been recognized as one of America's premier collegiate marching bands. With humble beginnings in 1972, the first year of football at JMU, the Marching Royal Dukes have quickly moved to the fast track of collegiate bands in America.

The Marching Royal Dukes have received many awards and performed at many prestigious events. The MRD's have performed at NFL games in Pittsburgh, Baltimore and Washington. In 1983, they were the halftime show for the NFL championship game between the Washington Redskins and the Dallas Cowboys. The band has been a featured performer for Walt Disney Productions and the Richmond Christmas Parade. In 1988 and 1991, the Marching Royal Dukes were the featured band at the Bands of America Grand National Championship.

In 1994, the John Phillip Sousa Foundation selected the Marching Royal Dukes as the recipient of the Sudler Trophy, the Heisman Trophy of college marching bands. In 1997, the MRD's were featured in President Bill Clinton's inaugural parade. Also in 1997, the Marching Royal Dukes took their first European tour. They performed at the palace in Monaco for the closing ceremonies of the 700th anniversary of the Grimaldi family. The Dukes then gave exciting performances in Cannes, France, and Genoa, Italy. As the Dukes paraded down streets filled with rich European tradition, thousands of fans followed them shouting "JMU."

The Marching Royal Dukes have become well known for their recordings. The band's first record was produced in 1978. In 1983, they began their tradition of producing a new recording each year. In 1988, the Dukes produced their first CD. The Marching Royal Dukes recordings are available at the JMU Bookstore. The outstanding sound of the Dukes has led them to do featured recordings for Warner Brothers Publications, Columbia Pictures Publications and C.L. Barnhouse Publications.
