JAMES MADISON UNIVERSITY MARCHING ROYAL DUKES

And now, presenting "Virginia's Finest, The James Madison University Marching Royal Dukes! This familiar announcement begins each exciting half time as one of America's premiere collegiate marching bands takes the field with their spectacular musical renditions and fast-paced drill maneuvers. Among the many awards and performances, the MRD's have performed at NFL games in Pittsburgh, Baltimore and Washington. In 1983 they were the half-time show for the NFL Championship game between the Washington Redskins and the Dallas Cowboys. They have been a featured performer for Walt Disney Productions and several times have been the feature band for the Richmond Christmas Parade. In 1988 and 1991, the Marching Royal Dukes were the featured band at the Bands of America Grand National Championship. In 1994 the John Philip Sousa Foundation selected them as the recipient of the Sudler Trophy. This award is the Heisman Trophy of college marching bands. In 1997, the MRD's were featured in the Presidential Inaugural Parade for President Bill Clinton and in 2001 performed for the Inauguration of George W. Bush. 1997 also saw a first as the Marching Royal Dukes took their first European tour where they performed for the closing ceremonies of the 700th anniversary of the Grimaldi Family in Monaco. In December, 2000, the Dukes once again performed in Europe for the New Years Celebration in Athens, Greece with an estimated audience of over 500,000. In 2001, the Marching Royal Dukes made their first appearance in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City

The Marching Royal Dukes have become well known for their outstanding recordings. The band's first recording came in 1978 and in 1983 they began their tradition of producing a new recording each year. In 1988, the Dukes produced their first compact disc. All recordings can be obtained through the JMU Bookstore. The Marching Royal Dukes are supported by both the Yamaha Corporation and Sabian Cymbals and are used in both companies' international advertisements. Dr. Pat Rooney is the Director of Bands. Brantley T. Douglas III is the Assistant Director and Bill Posey is the visual coordinator. Rick Deloney is the drum line instructor and Aubrey Rohr coordinates the color guard. Musical arranger for this year's shows is Larry Clark, Vice President of Carl Fischer Publications and a JMU Alum. And now, presenting "Virginia's Finest," the James Madison University Marching Royal Dukes!
